

WINE LIST

No Thinkin', Just Drinkin'

Rule #2 at The Old Seven - Nellie

Great wine is often considered to be pretentious and class dividing, but it shouldn't be. Sommeliers have a real knack at writing wine lists that only other Sommeliers can understand.

Aromatic whites vs Textural whites.

Old World vs New World

Well I call bullshit on that!!!

Chances are, 99% of you don't really care much about whether your wine has undergone battonage, or seen a kiss of Vermentino, and if you do, I'm happy to talk your ear off about the elegant high altitude structure of Saint Victoire Rosé vs the briny coastal freshness of La Londe.. don't get me started.

But let's face it, the only reason you're reading this is because you're waiting patiently for your friends to arrive before ordering your first glass of much deserved wine after a hard week, I get it.

Wine is all about personal taste, there is no right and wrong.. unless you drink Merlot of course.

You know what variety and region you love, so we've made it easy for you.

Every wine on this list has been tasted and tested by myself and my team, and we believe each wine is a classic representation of those regions and styles, but most importantly.. they're all balanced and bloody delicious!

So settle in.. choose your tittle.. ask one of our knowledgeable staff if you need some direction.. and enjoy The Old Seven experience.

PROVENCE ROSÉ

43

Château Grand Boise

Sainte Victoire 2022
The highest altitude vineyards in Provence. As pale and delicate as Rosé gets.

Domaine Les Fouques

Côtes de Provence 2022
Fruit driven yet still vibrant, fresh and dry. One of our favourite Provence Estates.

Domaine d'Eole

Aix-en-Provence 2022
Six different grape varieties make this Rosé textural and complex with lovely fresh acidity.

Domaine La Suffrene

Bandol 2022
Bandol is the greatest Rosé region in the world. Mourvedre dominant. Full and luscious.

BEAUJOLAIS

43

Domaine Bernard Metrat

Chiroubles 2022
The most elevated of the cru villages, Chiroubles takes longer to ripen. Complex & velvety.

Vignerons des Crus

Brouilly 2021
Brouilly, the southernmost of the cru villages, produces fruit driven wine. Strawberries & raspberries.

Domaine Conseillère

Juliéna 2019
The northernmost of the cru villages, Juliéna is intense and robust. Rich & bold.

Domaine de Javernière

Morgon 2020
From the famous Cote du Puy vineyard in Morgon, this is one powerful and tannic wine.

BORDEAUX

46

Château Calvimont

SSB
Cérons, 2020
Fresh, bright and aromatic. A classic representation of Bordeaux white.

Château Lalande Villeneuve

Cabernet Merlot
Médoc 2014
Some lovely aged notes of leather & spice. Soft tannins & silky smooth.

Château Haut-Segur

Merlot Cabernet Franc
Lussac St-Emilion 2014
Has some nice dark berry fruit flavours for its age. Juicy and bright.

Château Calvimont

SSB Sweet White
Cérons 2011
Sweet, but still retains freshness and acidity. Pretty bloody special!

EUROTRIP

43

Gustave Lorentz Pinot Blanc

Alsace, France 2022
Crisp, delicate, dry and delicious, with depth and minerality.

Markus Molitor Riesling

Mosel, Germany 2021
Dry, elegant and mineral with a lovely citrus acidity.

Larchago Tempranillo

Rioja, Spain 2020
A nice balance of fruit and oak. Juicy yet still savoury.

Maretti Barolo Nebbiolo

Piedmont, Italy 2019
Dry and full-bodied with cherry and spice notes.

ROLLICK WINES - BAROSSA VALLEY

Owners of Rollick Wines, Jack & Tash, were both born in the Barossa Valley, delivered two weeks apart by the same doctor. Due to a family move, they grew up in different places, but as fate would have it, their lives crossed paths 25 years later thanks to a chance encounter at a mutual friend's birthday and they've been together ever since. The first wine they made together was for charity, a Fiano. It was a hit and they had such a blast producing it that they wanted to figure out how they could do it again... Rollick Wines was born. Jack has been making wine for 15 years, 8 of those at Henschke, Tash has a background in advertising and consulting and is the brains behind the business.. A match made in Heaven. Their philosophy is to deliver high quality, delicious, drinkable wines for you to enjoy amid some good old, frivolous, frolicking fun... we concur!!

Fiano 2023	Grenache 2022	Eden Valley Shiraz 2020	Barossa Valley Shiraz 2020
Light and fresh yet still textural. It has lovely bright and refreshing acidity that lingers.	Light and juicy with fresh red fruit flavours of raspberry and cherry with a clean acid finish.	An elegant style of Barossa Shiraz. Blackberry & spice with a smooth and velvety finish.	Bold Barossa Shiraz with Licorice and Plum notes and a long juicy finish.

| 2022 Jules 54
 Southern France
 Méditerranée IGP classified Rosé wines are usually not quite as refined as Provençal Rosé however Jules is still well balanced with that moreish feel about it. It's not the classiest Rosé on the list, but neither is Carmen Electra... she's still my hall pass though. | 2022 Villa Aix 71
 Aix-en-Provence
 The great Samantha Fox once sang, "touch me, touch me, I wanna feel your body", but she wasn't talking about this Rosé. This Grenache, Cinsault & Syrah blend is as light as a government handout, but with a touch less acidity. | 2022 Le Petit Gueissard 54
 Southern France
 Made by Bandol Superstars Domaine Gueissard, this blend of Grenache, Syrah & Cinsault is fresh and vibrant with lovely strawberry notes. Very easy to drink. It's like watching Love Island UK.. before you know it, you're 10 episodes in. | 2022 Château Peyrol 75
 Côtes de Provence
 If this Rosé was a Kardashian, it would be boring, bitter and taste like plastic, but it's not. It's as moreish and delicious as Channing Tatum... and Magic Mike wants you to press your lips against him tonight.... drink up ladies!! |
| 2021 L'Arnaude 61
 Southern France
 Grenache & Cinsault that certainly over delivers. It reminds me of the time my VW broke down outside a pub, only to discover there was topless bar girls, half price beers, free snooker, and a male revue out the back... #winning | 2022 Grain de Soleil 75
 Aix-en-Provence
 This Grenache dominant Rosé has some Syrah added for richness and a dash of Cabernet Sauvignon, which I usually don't like in Rosé, but in this case it adds colour and acidity and brings the whole wine together... not unlike Iggy Azalea, who without those silicon butt implants and bad American accent, she'd just be another boring bitch from Mullumbimby. | 2021 Domaine Fazi 63
 Corsica
 This blend of Sciaccarellu, Merlot, Grenache & Cinsault is crisp, fine and dry, yet has the power to hold up to its Provençal big sisters. Like Milla Jovovich, it can walk the catwalk, but when the zombies take over... | 2022 Domaine La Florane 78
 Visan, Rhone Valley
 This Cinsault, Grenache & Syrah blend is as perky fresh as Miley Cyrus, but a little cleaner and palatable.... more Hannah Montana than Miley really. It finishes clean, crisp and just keeps you coming back for more. |
| 2020 Mas des Bressades 69
 Costieres de Nimes, Rhone Valley
 This blend of Syrah, Grenache and Cinsault has a richness and power that I just love from Rhone Valley Rosé. It's generous, full flavoured and pairs perfectly with cured meat.. like Mark Wahlberg. | | | |

| 2022 Château Montfin 78
 Corbières, Languedoc
 Cinsault, Grenache and Syrah that is as rich, as lush and as textural as Elton John. It has intense fruit flavours of morello cherry, cranberry, and a lemon like acidity on the finish. A little like a Victoria's Secret Model... it really needs some food. | 2021 Mimi en Provence 97
 Côtes de Provence
 Have you ever found yourself marching in the Mardi Gras, stripped down to your underwear, glitter on your nipples, a strapping young shirtless gentleman in one hand, a bottle of this complex, yet delicate Grenache, Cinsault & Syrah Rosé in the other?? No, me neither.. |
| 2022 Domaine la Colombe 81
 Côteaux Varois en Provence
 Grenache & Cinsault for freshness, with a touch of Cabernet to fill it out. The famous detective, Columbo, once said, "Before coffee, I'm up and walking around but I'm not awake" and without this wine in hand, I'm alive, but am I really living? | 2022 Domaine d'Eole 97
 Aix-en-Provence
 Grenache, Cinsault, Syrah, Mourvèdre, Cunoise & Carignan, this is one fresh, yet complex Rosé. It's like going on a date with Kevin Spacey, anything could happen... just go with the flow.... you'll enjoy it... trust me. |
| 2022 Domaine Les Fouques 81
 Côtes de Provence
 In cracking vintages The Fouques stable produces some of the best elegant yet textural Provençal Rosé out there. Grenache & Cinsault that is fresh, elegant and fruit driven. This is Ryan Reynolds favourite Rosé.... maybe?? | 2022 Château Minuty 97
 St. Tropez, Provence
 Grenache and Cinsault come together to form an aromatic symphony of white peach and citrus. This is the Kendall Jenner of the Chateau Minuty family, not as big and rich as it's older siblings, but it hasn't had too much work done to it either. |
| 2021 Saint Max 82
 Côtes de Provence
 A crisp and classic blend of Grenache, Cinsault & Syrah. It's as light as Mila Kunis in that movie Black Swan, where she plays a young Victoria Beckham... or evil ballerina... or something like that... that movie confused the hell out of me. | 2022 Château Grande Boise 99
 Sainte Victoire, Provence
 From the highest altitude vineyards in Provence, this Grenache, Syrah and Cinsault is as pale, delicate and elegant as Rosé can possibly get. If Zac Efron and Margot Robbie had a love child, it would drink Chateau Grand Boise. |
| 2021 Domaine Saint Esteve 86
 Aix-en-Provence
 Equal parts Grenache, Carignan, Syrah & Cabernet, this Rosé is as pale as Michael Jackson waiting for a jury verdict, but boy are the kids going to love this one. Strawberries and cream.. yes please! | |

| 2020 Domaine Le Galantin 99
 Bandol, Provence
 A Mourvèdre dominant Rosé that is funky, complex and rich, yet still fresh & acidic... but unlike Kanye, Domaine Le Galantin's vineyards have never seen chemicals. They are 100% organic... not batshit crazy either. 2021 Domaine de Rimauresq 102
 Côtes de Provence
 Domaine de Rimauresq are one of the 18 Cru Classé Estates created in 1955, before Côtes de Provence received its AOC classification. Their Cinsault, Grenache and Tibouren vines produce some beautiful, delicate, elegant and complex fruit. So complex in fact, that in France, one might get a duck, force feed that fucker, steal its liver, and fry it up with a glass or two of this Rosé. 2022 Domaine Gueissard 104
 Bandol, Provence
 This Mourvèdre dominant Rosé comes alive with food. Full bodied and fruit driven in style, this is the Jayne Mansfield on the list. Don't cast a side-eye glance at this voluptuous beauty, appreciate it's brazen nature. Proof that blondes do have more fun. 2021 Domaines Bunan 'Bélouvé' 104
 Côtes de Provence
 Cinsault, Cabernet & Ugni Blanc, otherwise known as Trebbiano, makes this quite an unusual blend for Côtes de Provence Rosé. However, this seems to work beautifully. Rich, yet expressive and fine. White peach and strawberry.. this is my kinda fruit salad. Quite the surprise. I was expecting a performance akin to Matthew McConaughey in Fools Gold, but instead I got The Lincoln Lawyer. | 2018 Domaine Les Pallieres 112
 Gigondas, Rhone Valley
 This signature Rosé from Chateauneuf Superstars Domaine du Vieux Télégraphe is fresh, elegant & full. This is a Rosé that demands some food... The Nigella Lawson on the list. So close your eyes and caress your glass.. this is finger sucking good. 2022 Domaine Les Fouques 'L'Estelle' 112
 La Londe, Provence
 La Londe is more about elegance and minerality than texture and weight but this blend of Grenache, Cinsault, Syrah & Vermentino has great body. It's delicate, but full, certainly no Paris Fashion Week Model. This is the Estate's flagship wine, and the first wine we chose for this list. A favourite and a must try!! 2022 Domaine La Suffrene 114
 Bandol, Provence
 This classic Bandol blend of Mourvèdre, Grenache & Cinsault was named the world's best Rosé. It's not the best, but it is bloody good. Scarlett Johansson was crowned the most beautiful woman in the world too, but my wife holds that trophy. 2021 Clos Sainte Magdeleine 125
 Côtes de Provence
 Clos Sainte Magdeleine is one of the most stunning wineries in Provence. This blend of Grenache, Cinsault, Mourvèdre & Syrah is beautifully balanced and quite complex. Like a graffitied school desk, there's a lot going on. A bit like Post Malone's face. | |

| 2021 Domaines Bunan 'Moulin des Costes' 138
 Bandol, Provence
 Mourvèdre, Cinsault & Syrah that is as rich, expressive, classy and suave as George Clooney. It's one of those all time greats that you keep coming back to, but don't let that fool you, it could still go a few rounds with George Foreman too. The boxer, not the grill. 2019 Château Bellet 140
 Bellet, Nice, Provence
 And now for something completely different.. The most unique subregion in Provence, Bellet. Chateau Bellet own 13Ha of the 55Ha under vine in Bellet. Their Rosé is made from 100% Braquet, an ancient Roman variety. Apricot, saffron and orange sorbet, this Rosé is as rich as Rupert Murdoch, but fortunately it lacks that "piece of shit" quality that Rupert so exudes. 2019 Domaine de Rimauresq 'Rebelle' 156
 Côtes de Provence
 A stunning Old School Rosé that is as rich & as full bodied as Chris Hemsworth. This blend of Grenache, Syrah, Cinsault, Vermentino & Mourvèdre is the Thor on the list. Spoil yourself, spend the night with a Hemsworth. 2020 Château Roubine 'Lion & Dragon' 156
 Côtes de Provence
 This stunning Rosé has some lovely, complex, herbaceous and earthy notes delivered by the obscure Provençal Tibouren grape. With the added red berry fruits of Mourvèdre, this wine is equal parts interesting, delicious, and sexy. Think Dita Von Teese. | 2022 Domaines Ott 'Clos Mireille' 156
 La Londe, Provence
 This Grenache, Cinsault & Syrah Rosé is the penultimate wine in the hunt for the classic Provençal style. Clean, crisp, fresh, mineral and generous. This will probably be the best Rosé you'll ever try, so savour it. Think Jessica Biel meets Henry Cavill. 2021 Domaines Ott 'Château Romassan' 156
 Bandol, Provence
 Mourvèdre, Grenache, Cinsault & Syrah that is big and ballsy, but still retains the finesse and class that Ott are known for. Sour cherry, grapefruit, pomegranate and spice. Its finish is balanced and mineral with the length of Errol Flynn. 2021 Château La Rouvière 169
 Bandol, Provence
 Mourvèdre, Cinsault & Grenache that is classic Bandol in style. Elegance & Power. It is fruit driven yet bone dry, robust and savoury. Bandol is considered to produce the best Rosé in the world.. according to most wine writers.. who are generally old men. They love the power and depth of these wines, I do too. The length of this wine is incredible, like Barry Wood. 2021 Château Minuty 'et OR' 173
 St. Tropez, Provence
 Grenache and Tibouren are blended to create a stunning, elegant Rosé that is packed full of stonefruit flavours with a touch of herbaceousness to keep it interesting. This is probably the prettiest Rosé on the list. The Grace Kelly. |

| 2021 | Clos Sainte Magdeleine
 Cassis, Provence
 Cassis was designated the very first AOC in Provence in 1930, one of the first in France, along with Tavel and Chateauneuf-du-Pape. It is an extremely special and stunning place. Only a dozen vigneronns are lucky enough to produce wine here. This Grenache, Cinsault & Mourvèdre is beautifully fine, mineral & salinous. It's about as classy a Rosé as one can drink, yet still has an edge to it. Think Michelle Pfeiffer.. dressed as Catwoman. | 173 | | 2022 | Domaines Ott 'Etoile'
 Provence
 Domaines Ott are the greatest Rosé producers in the world, so it seems fitting that they created one of the greatest Rosés in the world by blending the best fruit their three Châteaux have to offer. Grenache from Château De Selle and Clos Mireille and Mourvèdre from Château Romassan. As the French would say, this wine is for 'four eyes only'. It's just too good to share with friends, only loved ones need apply. | 390 |
| 2022 | Domaine Tempier
 Bandol, Provence
 Domaine Tempier are the masters of Bandol Rosé. They are Bandol Royalty. Their Mourvèdre dominant Rosé is as big as Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson, but has the delicate touch of Judy Garland. The Hugh Jackman of the list.. It could sing and dance one minute, destroy your enemies the next, and then after lunch, maybe govern a nation and do it better than most leaders right now. This wine pairs perfectly with hope, respect, empathy, and a good Manchego. | 177 | | 2020 | Château d'Esclans 'Garrus'
 St. Tropez, Provence
 So here it is, the most expensive Rosé in the world. Made from 100 year old Grenache vines and aged in 600 litre temperature controlled barrels, this is like no other Rosé you'll ever try. There's a dash of Vermentino added for some salinity, making this deliciously moreish. This is the best date night wine you'll ever find, and I'm not talking a Kim Kardashian and Kanye West conceive another child kinda date either. I'm talking a classy, sexy, risqué kinda date.. a bit of a naughty date. A JFK and Marilyn Monroe secret rendezvous at The Château Marmont kinda date. Yeah, that's what I'm talking about. This wine can only be described as the Muhammad Ali of Rosé.. The Greatest of All Time!!! | 470 |
| 2018 | Château Minuty '281'
 St. Tropez, Provence
 This Grenache dominant Rosé is on my "Top 5 best Rosé in the world" list. 281 is a Pantone colour code and I assume the owner's Ferrari or Superyacht is painted this colour. I think Simon Cowell uses code 465 for his fake St. Tropez tan.. It's produced from the oldest Grenache vines on the estate and it has an intense expression of minerality with a sense of place. This is one classy Rosé. Perfectly pairs with seafood, but I spent all my money on the wine. She's a pricey first date, but boy are you gonna get lucky tonight! | 230 | | | | |
